The usual announcements were made and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by O. E. Brown.

FOURTH DAY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1919

The Conference assembled at 9 o'clock a. m., September 6, 1919, and was called to order by Bishop W. B. Murrah. The hymn, "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," was sung. Brother W. P. Wynn led the Conference in prayer. The hymn "Come We That Love the Lord" was sung, after which Brother Wynn read as a Scripture lesson the fourth chapter of Philippians.

The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

The secretary read the following telegram in answer to the message sent by the Conference to President Wilson:

St. Louis, Mo., September 5, 1919.

Charles O. Ransford, Secretary Missouri Conference,
Methodist Episcopal Church, South,
Mexico, Mo.

The President is greatly heartened by your generous message and asked me to thank the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the generous good will which prompted your wiring him.

J. P. TUMULTY, Secretary to the President.

Committee of Investigation—The special committee appointed to investigate the questions affecting the character of A. B. Coffman made the following report, which was adopted by the Conference:

"We, your committee, to whom the case of Rev. A. B. Coffman was referred, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. While he has been guilty of very great and serious indiscretion, according to his own statement and that of many witnesses, we do not deem it wise at this time to go behind the report of the committee of investigation.

2. Whereas, according to article 165 of the Discipline, a preacher may be discontinued only for lack of efficiency in the pastorate, applying both to proper administrative and preaching ability, which is not alleged nor proved in this case, we recommend his continuation on trial for another year."

O. E. BROWN
JAMES M. BOON
J. M. BONE
B. D. SIPPLE
FRANK M. BURTON,
Committee.

Question 17—"Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" was called. The names of all the preachers of the Chillicothe, Fayette and Gallatin districts were called over one by one, and their characters were examined and passed.

Question 4—"Who are admitted into full connection?" was called. Herman Henry Luetzow, John E. Elmore and Ray Silver Tomlin, having passed approved examinations, were called before the Conference and after an address by Bishop Murrah, who also asked the disciplinary questions asked of all candidates for admission into full connection, and satisfactory answers having been given, by vote of the Conference, they were severally admitted.

Bishop McMurry—The presence of Bishop McMurry was noted, and Bishop Murrah spoke words of kindly appreciation of his presence, and invited him to occupy a seat on the platform. Later Bishop McMurry presided over the Conference during the presentation of certain reports.

Resolution on Unification—The following resolution was presented and unanimously adopted:

Whereas it has been indicated to this Conference by the presiding Bishop that the unification commission of our church desires the Annual Conferences to express themselves on the subject of unification, with particular reference to the method by which the reorganization of Methodism shall be consummated, therefore be it resolved,

That the Missouri Annual Conference hereby reaffirms its unanimous action in favor of unification, and that we refuse to tie the hands or embarrass the deliberations of our Commissioners by indorsing any particular plan before the Commissioners have recommended it to the church.

C. C. GRIMES.

On motion it was ordered that when the Conference adjourned, we adjourn to meet in memorial session at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Reports—The following reports were read and adopted: Trustees of the Conference Fund; Committee on District Conference Records; Sunday School Board; Commission on Finance; American Bible Society; Committee on Conference Relations; Board of Christian Literature.

Question 13—"What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected deacons?" was called; George Lewis Glenn, a local preacher recommended by the Chillicothe District, was elected to deacon's orders.

Recognition of Orders—The orders of G. W. Trotter, an elder from the Methodist Episcopal Church, recommended by the Chillicothe District, were recognized.

Resolution—The following resolution was read and adopted: Since the matter of Conference entertainment is growing more difficult each year, Resolved that it is the sense of this body that we should convene on Thursday morning instead of Wednesday as has been our custom, thereby reducing the length of the conference session one day.

W. M. ALEXANDER

FOURTH DAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1919

On motion of Brother J. A. Medley the Conference ordered the reconsideration of the Report of the Board of Christian Literature. After much discussion the report was amended with respect to the amount paid by the Conference Boards to the Advocate Fund. The report as amended was then adopted.

On motion of C. C. Grimes the Conference appointed Rev. J. H. Jackson as our Fraternal Messenger to the Missouri Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church.

Thanks—The following resolution of Thanks was adopted by a rising vote:

"We, the members of the Missouri Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, wish to express our sincere thanks to the membership of the Mexico Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the citizens of Mexico for their kind consideration for our comfort and their cordial hospitality and their pleasant and helpful fellowship during the Conference session.

"We would also express our thanks to the Presiding Elder, Brother A. C. Johnson, and the pastor, Brother C. V. Lanius, for their untiring efforts to care for our every need.

"Our thanks are also extended Brother J. L. F. Nickerson, pastor of Mexico Circuit, and the good people of his charge, for ministering to our comfort and the splendid meals served.

"We greatly appreciate the assistance of the choir and the Wisdom Sisters and other special singers who have given us excellent music. We thank the pastors and people of the Mexico churches for the use of their church buildings for religious services and the courtesy of inviting members of the Conference to fill their pulpits Sunday. We are especially grateful to Brother J. A. Medley and his efficient corps of assistants who have worked hard to minister to the needs of the Conference.

"We are thankful to Brother C. O. Ransford and his hard working assistants for their able work at the secretarial desk and statistical service. Bishop W. B. Murrah has now presided over two sessions of our Conference and has shown unvarying kindness to every member of the Conference and in every way ministered in a highly satisfactory way to the best interests of our Conference. We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation of his most efficient and valuable services and request that the College of Bishops return him to us for another year."

REPORTS

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

We, your Board of Missions, beg leave to submit the following report:

We wish to call your attention to the splendid showing made by the General Board concerning its financial resources for the year, showing an income from all sources of $1,696,678, a substantial increase of $163,313.

We wish also to record our appreciation of the labors of the church for the most inspiring manner in which the Centenary of American Methodist Missions has been observed, and the splendid achievement in raising an amount so much in excess of the sum asked. With all credits the church has raised an amount in excess of fifty millions of dollars.

But we must be reminded of the great opportunity that the Centenary brings, and the danger. As a new missionary era opens, may we prove ourselves worthy to enter and possess the land. We wish to urge the pastors of the Missouri Conference to acquaint themselves with and to follow the standard plans of the Centenary Commission in conserving the results of our past accomplishments and in pressing forward on the lines of our advance so well begun. Let the stewardship of prayer in intercession, of life service, and of property be most earnestly cultivated.

We are sure that the accomplishment of the Missouri Conference in raising $941,000, including credits has been no small task, and we would urge that our fidelity as leaders may result in the realization for our conference of the slogan, "Not a Deficit, but an Increase."

Emphasis on the Centenary must not be allowed to obscure the regular sources of income. The success of the Centenary makes it necessary that we increase our income to care for our enlarged missionary program. The new law of assessments makes obligatory the annual payment of the assessment for missions along with other assessments not involved in the Centenary offerings. Again, the regular income including assessments, has been, from the beginning kept entirely separate from the strictly Centenary Funds. We include this instruction that it may be clear and insisted upon without exception.

It is most gratifying to the Board to be able to supplement the salaries of the pastors this year from our portion of the refund of 10 per cent of the total paid on the Centenary fund by the Conference. The Board was enabled to add nearly four thousand dollars to the meagre salaries of our men on mission charges.

While some mission charges have become self-sustaining during the year the number is not encouragingly large. We urge that these grants from the Board may be regarded as provisional on progress and not to be perpetuated indefinitely. Let every presiding elder make a special effort each year to reduce these amounts appropriated to mission charges.

We wish to call your attention further to the appeal that comes to us from the Department of Spiritual Resources and Intercession of the Centenary Movement concerning the family altar. The goal proposed is one hundred family altars in Southern Methodism. To this end we wish most heartily to endorse "The Family Altar League" and ask that the Missouri Conference accept as her quota of this number twenty-five hundred to be distributed among the several districts of the Conference by the Presiding Elders. May the Lord make us, not only a paying people, but a praying people.

We wish to commend to our churches the wisdom of the plan for specials and would urge the hearty co-operation of the churches to the end that every congregation may have a missionary special, and that wherever it is possible that these be chosen on Assignment week.

We recommend that W. P. Hunt be appointed as Conference Missionary Evangelist for the coming year.

We recommend that the request of the Centenary Commission for the appointment of C. C. Grimes as Missionary Secretary be granted and that we express our heartiest appreciation for his most effective service in this important office during the last year. We ask the Bishop to make this appointment.

We recommend that W. M. Alexander be elected as a member of the Board in place of W. P. Hunt, and that E. Y. Burton be elected in the place of E. M. Street.

Respectfully submitted,

J. N. BOYD, Chairman

S. W. HAYNE, Secretary

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Your Board has received the report of the Secretary of the General Board of Church Extension and rejoices in the progress that has been made. Dr. Boaz was before the Board and spoke optimistically of the outlook.

The cause of Church Extension was included in the Centenary Program and the General Board will receive from two to three million of dollars for carrying on its work. This must not, however, be interpreted to mean that we have all the funds necessary. In fact there is still great need to increase our funds and especially our loan fund. It is urged therefore that attention be given to building up our Loan Fund in the Conference, thereby relieving the pressure on the General Board.

The Loan Fund of the Missouri Conference Board now is $3600.00. This ought to be increased to $10,000 or $15,000.

Our pastors are especially urged to call attention to the provisions of our General Board for paying profitable annuities. Detailed information may be secured from the Secretary.

We call attention to the architectural department maintained by the Board. No church should be built without having our own architect pass on the plans.

Dr. H. A. Boaz is proving wise and resourceful in carrying on the work so splendidly begun and administered by his predecessor for twelve years.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Your Conference Board of Education submits the following report:

We have carefully considered the various interests that have come before the Board.

Church Schools

Representatives of our church schools have been heard, their reports have been read, and it is a great satisfaction to us to note that the financial outlook is more promising in every case, and that all of them will have a capacity attendance this year. It is a matter of extreme regret to us to state that the payment on assessment was $738 less this year than the payment for Conference work last year. This is due to the fact that under the new financial system our assessment has been reduced about $1000. Because of this deficit we have been obliged to curtail the appropriation to each of our colleges.

We heartily endorse the application of Howard-Payne College to the Educational Campaign Commission for $500,000, and of Central College for Women for $625,000 from the church-wide educational campaign.

We recommend for election as Curators:

Central College—

S. P. Cresap for a term of four years.

Dr. A. B. Miller for a term of four years.

Central College for Women—

- F. Lee Wallace for a term of three years.
- J. D. Randolph for a term of three years.
- E. S. Hunt for a term of one year to succeed Judge Herring, deceased.

Howard-Payne College—

- Judge A. W. Walker for a term of four years.
- W. P. Wynn for a term of four years.
- M. M. Payne for a term of four years.
- H. M. Kingsbury for a term of four years.
- W. L. Scarborough for a term of two years to succeed H. E. Stout.

Preachers' Institute

The Preachers' Institute Committee reported to the Board that suitable speakers could not be secured for last year on account of the war situation. For this year they promise us a strong program and we recommend the usual appropriation.

Student Work at Columbia

There will be 800 to 1000 Methodist students at the University of Missouri this year. The Commissioners report that they have secured an exceptional man, who has been receiving a much larger salary elsewhere, as Student Secretary, and we believe that there is no more important educational cause before the Board. We most heartily endorse the application to the Educational Campaign Commission for $225,000 from the churchwide educational campaign, to be expended for an adequate church at Columbia, a Sunday School and Recreational building, and for assisting in the erection of a Woman's dormitory.

Southern Methodist Educational Association

Your Board has become a member of the Southern Methodist Educational Association, organized at Memphis, March 4, 1919, in a most inspiring gathering. This association promises to be of great value as a rallying center for the educational forces and agencies of the entire church.

General Educational Campaign

The center of interest at this time is the great intensive, churchwide educational campaign authorized by the last General Conference. The General Conference gave the Centenary campaign the right of way for the first two years of the quadrennium, and gave the last two years to the educational campaign for its task. The time for beginning the educational campaign was fixed as May 1, 1920, and the time for the financial drive was fixed as April or May, 1921.

The Board asks the Conference to pledge as full co-operation in the educational campaign as was given in the Centenary campaign.

Appointments

The Board recommends that the Conference request the appointment of the following to schools:

Dr. Paul H. Linn to the presidency of Central College; A. N. Evans to the presidency of Howard-Payne College; Dr. O. E. Brown to the Southern Colleges of Young Men's Christian Associations at Nashville, Tenn.; R. S. Tomlin to the Theological department of Paine College; C. H. French, and H. H. Luetzow as students at Yale University; J. J. Copeland and L. E. Murphy as students at Northwestern University; F. A. Culmer Professor Central College.

We recommend the appointment of B. D. Sipple as Conference Secretary of Education.

Apportionments

The Board has made apportionments as follows:

Central College	$1,600
Central College for Women	300
Howard-Payne College	300
Southern Methodist University	300

These amounts to be paid out of funds on hand.

Preachers' Institute	$300
Student Work at Columbia	800

These amounts to be paid from the balance on hand and the ensuing year's collections.

Whereas there is a great tendency to laxity in social association among the young people of these times, we urge our school authorities with all diligence to discourage among our Methodist students the indulgence in such social practices as are recognized by our great church as inimical to the highest spirituality. We also wish emphatically to call the attention of the church to the profound manifestation of the Holy Spirit that occurred during the past year among the student bodies of Central and Howard-Payne Colleges, which resulted in the surrender of some fifteen lives for special Christian service, and we urge Methodist parents to place their children in the church schools, where such conditions prevail.

We recommend the election of C. C. Grimes as trustee Southern Methodist University.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION

Your Board of Ministerial Education feel that there should be a more adequate endowment fund to be used for the training and developing of our young men who are candidates for the holy ministry. Again, and again we hear the sentiment expressed: "The pastor is the key to the movement." Such claim has been repeated several times from different sources on the conference floor during this session.

In view of the recognized importance of this position and the ever widening and pressing demand upon our preachers, we feel that there is a correspondingly increasing need of the very best foundation possible being laid in collegiate and seminary training. Many of them are forced to quit school for lack of funds, this action resulting finally in loss of their usefulness to the Kingdom. We believe that laymen who have money which they desire to work when they are gone, will find a most promising field by turning some of their money over to increase the Endowment Fund for the very best preparation of our young men to stand on the walls of Zion and be real watchmen, real leaders in the Kingdom of our Lord and his Christ.

While under the present condition, we do not deem it wise to project any special drive for this fund, we do request our pastors to call the attention of our people to the need and possible usefulness of funds in this direction. When persons are found interested send their names and addresses to Rev. B. D. Sipple who will co-operate in such steps as are advisable to secure gifts looking to meeting the many calls from these worthy young men who are preparing to enter the service of the church.

We believe that just so soon as at all practicable steps should be taken to raise $100,000.00 for Central College Endowment, the income to be used by the college for the better training and equipment of our young candidates for the ministry.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Your Board submits the following annual report:

We commend most heartily the plan of our General Board which calls for conference supervision, District organization and thorough grading of the local school, believing it to be workable, adaptable and the best plan by which the highest efficiency can be obtained.

In accordance with this plan we have had during the past year full time service of a Conference Secretary and the voluntary services of a Conference Elementary Superintendent and Superintendent of Teacher-training.

The nine districts have been organized: district officers' meetings have been held in four districts; district, charge and church institutes have been held; fifty-four teacher-training classes have been organized, and an advance step taken in the direction of the third rank standardization.

We appreciate your co-operation during the past year and feel assured that you will continue to co-operate with us as we carry forward during the coming year this splendid program to which our church has committed itself. We emphasize especially the following phases of our work: 1, district meetings under the supervision of the district organization; 2, a church-wide campaign for a larger Sunday school enrollment; 3, the observance of Sunday School Day which calls for the dedication of the whole day by the whole church to Sunday school interests.

The Sunday school believes in the Centenary; 144 schools accepted their allotment in full and many others are supporting specials amounting to a large per cent of their allotment.

We appreciate the support and co-operation of the General Board. We have been highly favored by having with us during this session the Board's representative, Miss Minnie E. Kennedy, whose efficient service and stirring messages have been of inestimable value.

We congratulate ourselves in the choice of G. A. Shadwick as our Field Secretary, his work has been very satisfactory and we take pleasure in recommending his reappointment.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

The Conference Epworth League Board respectfully submits the following report:

There have been several outstanding features in the history of the Epworth League during the past year. In each of the nine districts, helpful, spiritual and enthusiastic conferences have been held.

We believe that the Epworth League is given due consideration in their manner of approving and adopting the Centenary Campaign allotted to them. We feel that through it the work and vision of the Epworth League has been greatly increased. From its constituency, we expect to realize a large proportion of the missionaries and Christian workers that shall be used in the carrying out of this great program.

Furthermore, we believe that an enormous per cent of boys and girls are lost to the church through the disinterestedness of some church organizations and pastors in respect to Junior and Intermediate Leagues. The Junior and Intermediate Leagues have in the past and always will contribute to the future leadership of the Epworth League and the church. Therefore, we recommend ample provision and consideration in all congregations of our church for these departments.

We have, according to the pastors' reports, in the Missouri Conference one hundred and seventeen effective Epworth League organizations, with a membership of 4,107 choice young people. They have raised above the African Special and their respective Centenary quotas the sum of $2,757.00 which was placed in the hands of the pastors and applied upon and conference and general budgets. On Anniversary Day and for other objects an offering of $152.00 was made.

In consideration of the vital needs of the Epworth Leagues of our Conference in the development of their interests, we ask the Finance Committee to appropriate the sum of $750.00 to the Conference Epworth League Board to be distributed by them.

Whereas, the second Sunday in May has been designated by the Discipline, 1918, as the day to be observed as Anniversary Day, not only where there are Leagues, but in every congregation, we urge the pastors of every congregation to see that this particular part of the program of our General Conference is carried out and the offering taken sent directly to the treasurer of the Conference Epworth League.

We recommend that every local chapter have a definite policy of the work for each department including, an established mission study class, and the adoption of the Conservation Program of our church. Furthermore, we recommend the observance of Watch-Night with a proper presentation of the Stewardship of Life and a definite call to the ministry and missionary fields.

We call special attention to the educational value of the Epworth Era in promoting the various phases of our Epworth League work and recommend that it be brought into all of our local chapters and placed in the hands of every leaguer.

Inasmuch as the annual assembly at Pertle Springs has been successfully maintained in the past and has been a source of much benefit and spiritual power to the young people of the Missouri Conference who have availed themselves of its privileges, we appeal, to the pastors to urge a full representation of their young people so that we might have an adequate part in its constructive program.

Due observance should be given to the Annual Conference order that all missionary money applied to the general and conference budgets be sent through the pastors to the conference teller and all other offerings to be sent to C. J. Patterson, Treasurer, McCredie, Missouri.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

To the Bishop and Members of the Missouri Conference:

Dear Brethren: We, your Board of Christian Literature, have received the report of the Book Agents and find that the conditions of our publishing interests are very gratifying.

We especially urge our preachers to do all they can to increase the circulation of the Nashville Christian Advocate, the Quarterly Review, and all of the other publications of our Church.

We recommend that the plan for increasing the circulation of the St. Louis Christian Advocate as outlined in the Trustees' Report be adopted.

We congratulate the Trustees of the Methodist Advocate Company upon the election of Dr. A. F. Smith as editor and upon the splendid showing made by the Company in paying off old debts and placing the paper upon a solid foundation.

We recommend that the same assessment, $1500.00; with the same credits for new subscriptions as were granted last year, be made for the coming year. This credit being one dollar ($1.) for each new two dollar (2.) subscription to the extent of the assessment for the Advocate.

We ask that J. M. Monroe be made a member of the Board vice M. C. Davis appointed missionary to Cuba. Robert McIlvoy was elected president of the Board vice M. C. Davis resigned.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST ADVOCATE PUBLISHING COMPANY

To the Bishop and Members of the Missouri Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren: In obedience to the resolutions adopted by your body in 1918, which were also adopted by the Southwest Missouri and the St. Louis Conference, the three trustees named by you, together with the three appointed by the other two conferences, respectively, organized themselves into an industrial or business corporation, composed of the said nine trustees as stockholders and also as directors. The name chosen for the company was "The Methodist Advocate Publishing Co.," and by that name it has received a charter from the State of Missouri and is entitled to do business for a period of fifty years. It has a capital of $3600, which was created by the nine trustees borrowing that amount at the bank for a period of one year, and turning it over to the treasurer of the new company. Of that sum $2030 has been paid during the year out of the earnings of the paper. The certificates of stock of the Company express on their face that they are non-negotiable and non-transferable, and the by-laws state that each stockholder is a trustee of the Conference electing him, and that any attempt to transfer the stock or his removal from the State shall ipso facto vacate his office as director. The purpose of these provisions is to make it technically true, as well as true in fact, that the company is a mere trustee of the three Annual Conferences in Missouri in the ownership of the property and their agent for the publication of a church paper.

The new company bought the St. Louis Christian Advocate, including its name, good will, subscription lists and all property of every kind belonging to the St. Louis Christian Advocate Company, and as a consideration therefor it obligated itself to pay all the just debts of the old company and to pay to the Joint Board of Finance of each of the three Annual Conferences in Missouri the sum of fifty dollars a year for twenty-two years.

The Company since it took charge of the paper on November 1st, has paid all its current expenses and $3,140.34 of the debts of the former company. The number of subscribers then was 5,600; it is now 9,000.

Of this number, 1,000 are ministers, who are furnished the paper at one dollar a year each, and 8,000 are two-dollar subscriptions. The number of new subscribers in Missouri added during the year is 3348, and in order to carry out the resolutions adopted by you last year it will be necessary to obtain 4,000 more subscribers and retain all we have in order to bring the entire number of two-dollar subscribers up to 12,000. It will be necessary that the paper have that number of subscriptions if it is to be placed upon a sound and enduring financial basis and be made to maintain the high excellency to which you are entitled.

Receipts

Our receipts for the year, including subscriptions, advertising, sale of books and the $3,600 borrowed for capital of new Company, were $23002.33

Expenses

Our expenditures for the same time, including the cost of paper, composition, salary of editor, compensation of other employees and rent, and the $2,030 paid on note of trustees for the capital borrowed for the new company and the debts of the St. Louis Advocate Company amounting to $3140.34 paid, were $20933.36

Leaving a balance on hand on September 1st of.....$2068.37

Against this balance are the accounts due for the month of August, which had not been paid on September 1st, amounting to about $1500. There are also some undetermined debts of the St. Louis Christian Advocate Company, among them a claim for back taxes for 1915 to and including 1917, the justice of which we have not yet been able to decide.

If the new company can have the same co-operation and loyal support from the presiding elders, pastors and the church at large, for another year that it has had during the last year, it will be able to pay all its debts of every kind, and if this same faithful co-operation is continued through the years the paper's future is certain.

In order that the 4000 more subscribers may be added during the coming year, we respectfully request that your assessment of last year of $1500, which by the terms of your resolutions then adopted was to be continued until the whole number of two-dollar subscribers reached 12,000, be reaffirmed, and that it be again provided that each new two-dollar subscription shall count for one dollar on the church's quota.

Plan For Increasing Circulation

In order that 4,000 more new subscribers may be obtained, we further ask that your Conference adopt the following plan of increasing the paper's circulation:

1. The week beginning the second Sunday in November is hereby declared to be "St. Louis Christian Advocate Week."

2. During said week the presiding elders and pastors are requested to give so much of their time to increasing the circulation of the Advocate as is necessary to the securing of the quota of new subscribers assigned to each of the churches in the respective districts.

3. As a part of said work each pastor and preacher in charge is requested to organize committees in each congregation to solicit for new subscriptions, renewals of existing subscriptions and the collection of back subscriptions, and as far as possible, in selecting said committees and arranging their work, to follow the plan of organization used in the Centenary Eight-Day Drive, including the Minute Speakers during the month of October.

4. As a beginning of this Advocate Week we suggest that each pastor present the subject to his congregation, either on the second Sunday in November or on the Sunday closest to it as is most convenient, in such manner as in his judgment will be most effective in securing new subscribers.

Respectfully submitted,
THE METHODIST ADVOCATE PUBLISHING CO.,
Perry S. Rader, President.

REPORT OF AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD

To the Bishop and Members of the Missouri Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: We, your American Bible Society Board, desire to submit the following report:

We are glad to note a decided increase in the amount of money contributed to the Bible cause by this Conference this year. The amount collected in Conference work was $558.53 and the amount collected in general work was $1133.60, this being more than a thousand dollars increase over last year. We are gratified at the results by this new way of collecting the money as each cause gets its pro-rata and we congratulate the Conference on this splendid showing.

W. D. KING, Chairman

F. E. MOSLEY, Secretary and Treasurer

REPORT OF DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

To the Bishop and Members of the Missouri Conference:

Dear Brethren: We, your Committee on District Conference Records, beg leave to submit the following report:

The records of the Chillicothe, Hannibal, Mexico, St. Joseph, Macon and Gallatin Districts are neatly kept and complete in every detail.

The St. Charles, Richmond, and Fayette records were not before the committee. The secretaries of these respective districts report their records well kept.

Respectfully submitted,

MERLOW A. WEST, Chairman

B. B. HARVEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

To the Bishop and Members of the Missouri Conference:

Dear Brethren: We, your Board of Temperance and Sabbath Observance, submit the following report for your consideration and adoption:

1. We commend the action of the Fiftieth General Assembly of our state in ratifying, with forty-five other of our sister states, the Eighteenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution providing for national prohibition, which becomes a reality January 16, 1920.

We note also with great pleasure the fact that our legislature has given us adequate laws for the enforcement of national prohibition in our state.

2. That we, as ministers and laymen, pledge ourselves to exert our strength and influence in these closing days of the war against the traffic in intoxicating liquors to secure the enactment of adequate laws by Congress to enforce national prohibition and to combat the insidious and treacherous propaganda of the breweries and liquor interests seeking nullification of said amendment, and to aid in the enforcement of anti-liquor laws, when enacted, so that the complete elimination of this unholy traffic shall come to pass as soon as possible in this state.

3. That we desire to express our appreciation of the faithful and efficient manner in which the Anti-Saloon League of Missouri has conducted the fight against the saloon in this state and of the excellent prohibition enforcement law secured for Missouri; and of its untiring effort to enforce anti-liquor laws in this state; and to recommend that our pulpits continue to be open to its representatives for the presentation of this great work of the church and to pledge our loyal support to its program.

4. That we recommend the use of the attorney offered by the Anti-Saloon League to assist in law enforcement wherever needed.

5. That, inasmuch as we are now in a great crisis in regard to the enforcement of prohibition laws, and the need of strong sentiment is apparent, we give the subject of Temperance a place worth while in our District Conference programs.

6. That each pastor take a plate offering in his church, or churches, on the first Sunday in November or as soon thereafter as possible and send the same to the treasurer of the Board on Temperance, Reverend C. K. Shilling, for its work in the conference.

7. That this Conference most heartily endorse the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of Missouri; and that the churches so far as its agreeable, be urged to support it financially; and that our churches be open for the presentation of its work by its representatives. And that the election of Dr. Marvin T. Haw to the Board of Managers of the Alliance is hereby approved as a representative of our Church in the state.

8. That we express our appreciation of the music rendered by our Conference quartet and for the splendid addresses of Hon. J. Elmer Ball and Judge Martin E. Lawson which made possible the helpful and successful rally at this Conference.

9. That we recommend for reappointment as the trustees to represent this Conference on the state board of the Anti-Saloon League, Rev. J. J. Reed and Hon. M. E. Lawson.

10. That, because of the very great importance at this time of the prohibition situation, we request that the Board of Temperance be given Friday evening of our next Conference to present this cause.

J. J. REED, President
W. L. MYERS, Secretary

Whereas the Board of Trustees of Conference Fund submitted to the Annual Conference held in Moberly, 1907, a plan for the distribution of its funds which was accepted by the Conference and spread upon its minutes; and

Whereas the last General Conference at Atlanta adopted a plan which slightly differs from the one adopted by this Conference;

Resolved that we hereby instruct the Board of Finance to distribute the annual earnings of our Conference Endowment Fund to our worthy claimants according to the law governing the General Board of Finance.

We recommend the election of A. A. Kuhne of Troy, Missouri, to membership on this Board in place of S. H. Herring, deceased.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. R. H. Cooper, D. D., as agent of the Board for the ensuing year.

We emphasize the previously determined goal of $250,000.00 as the amount necessary and to be raised as speedily as possible for the support of our worthy and honorable veterans.

Respectfully,

S. P. CRESAP, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF FINANCE

Whereas our Conference went on record at its last session heartily endorsing the action of the Trustees of our Conference Endowment Fund in their purpose to raise the said fund to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

And whereas we are asked to define our attitude toward the General Board of Finance by Dr. Luther Todd, General Agent.

And whereas our General Board nor any of the Conference Boards are expected to put on an aggressive campaign during the present quadrenium, giving place to the Centenary and Educational interests of our church.

Be it resolved that our attitude toward the raising of this sacred fund is still that of hearty support and co-operation.

We heartily indorse and commend the splendid and monumental work of the Conference Agent, Dr. R. H. Cooper in securing this fund for our worthy superannuates; the widows and orphans of deceased preachers.

Resolved; that we stand to co-operate with the General Board in securing assets for the General Endowment Fund.

A slight advance has been made in many points notwithstanding the hindrance arising from the epidemic of influenza:

First—The membership has increased slightly; but we regret to record that after forty years of organized work as a Missionary Society, we have only enrolled one in seven of our Missouri Southern Methodist Women. We also realize that we are in the midst of critical years, when social and philanthropic organizations and newly acquired suffrage are making a strong appeal to the womanhood of the church, and beg that our pastors will impress upon the women of their congregations the duty of giving the first and best efforts of their lives to the cause of the church and of Christian missions.

Second—The collections for the year show a slight increase over the previous year, notwithstanding the many and imperative demands upon the resources of the women for social service and war relief work.

Third—We record with special pride the splendid service of the women who represent us in foreign fields, and in home land. Misses Hyde and Perkinson have done wonderful work in Brazil; Misses Combs and Stallings have proved their faith in the difficult places of China, and this year Miss Dora Ingram is added to our forces in Mexico, and Miss Blanche Hager in Japan. Miss Searcy is at home for health reasons, but we hope that she may have opportunity to work among the young people of the Conference during this year of waiting.

Fourth—Our Heavenly Father has called a large number of young people into special Christian work during the year. Large volunteer bands exist in Howard-Payne and Central Colleges and in the University of Missouri.

Fifth—The Scarritt Bible and Training School has maintained its high standard of work, and with added equipment and broadened curriculum; and we earnestly request that our ministers recommend it to our young women who are preparing for greater usefulness either in their home churches or in mission work.

Sixth—A splendid work in Americanization has been accomplished by Deaconess Ellison and her associates of the Wesley House among the foreigners in St. Joseph. The large Bible classes have been especially gratifying.

In presenting to you this report of our year's work, we are thankful for the results which have been achieved; but we regret that where the fields were so white unto the harvest, we might not be able to report a larger force of women at work for the Master, and the many fold result of prayerful efforts.

We are very grateful to our pastors and presiding elders for their cordial co-operation in the past, and we earnestly request that they will continue to urge upon the womanhood of the church the duty of giving time and talents to the work of the Missionary Society as it shall seek to do the work of the Lord in helping to extend His kingdom.

MRS. S. W. HAYNE, President

MRS. W. L. REED, Corresponding Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMUNITY MEDICAL LABORATORY OF THE MISSOURI FOUNDATION

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 1, 1919.

The Community Medical Laboratory of the Missouri Foundation planned a public campaign to begin January 1, 1917, for raising funds with which to inaugurate its work. This plan was abandoned at the request of the friends of the Wesley House who desired to raise by public subscription in St. Joseph $25,000.00 with which to secure a new plant which is so greatly needed by that splendid institution—an honor to the Methodist church in St. Joseph. The Community Medical Laboratory withdrew its plans for a campaign in the interest of the Wesley House because it was seen that both enterprises could not be projected at the same time, and the conditions seemed especially favorable to the interests of the Wesley House. In the last two years the world has been made over. It has been impossible for the Community Medical Laboratory to push its plans to a conclusion because of the conditions existing during the War, and because of its given word to the Wesley House as indicated above. The war is now over and the Wesley House has the promise of $25,000.00 from the Centenary fund. In addition, the Wesley House has several thousand dollars which it has gradually accumulated for building purposes. It would seem, therefore, that the time is about ripe for the Community Medical Laboratory to be released from its agreement to refrain from raising funds by the Wesley House. As soon as this can be done, there is no reason why the Community Medical Laboratory should not push its claims to a successful conclusion, and this is the desire of the Board of Trustees. The need for a Community Medical Laboratory in St. Joseph has grown with every passing year, and it is greater to-day than it has ever been before.

The opportunities for service for a Community Medical Laboratory, with the idea of Christian social service instead of commercial gain as its dominant and controlling principle, are unlimited in St. Joseph and its tributary country. Although it is now five years since this enterprise was suggested, and although there is nothing yet visible as a result of the efforts put forth, the Board of Trustees are in no sense discouraged, but are determined to keep the matter continually agitated until a Community Medical Laboratory is established. A quiet campaign has been going on all the time of both an educational and financial character, and persons of means especially are having their attention called constantly to the great need of a Community Medical Laboratory in our midst. It is the purpose of our Board to point out to people of means this great opportunity for service to humanity, and to give to those not wealthy a share in the work commensurate with their financial ability.

That there will be a Community Medical Laboratory in St. Joseph sooner or later is certain. God grant that it may be the glorious privilege of the Methodist Church to inaugurate and maintain it in the name of the Master.

W. A. BODENHAUSEN, President
DANIEL MORTON, Secretary.

MEMOIRS

REV. G. W. NOLLNER

THE REV. GEORGE WASHINGTON NOLLNER

From his home in Columbia, Mo., Sunday, Sept. 22, 1918, two weeks after his Conference adjourned, our brother finished his work and entered into glory. He had been two years on the "honor roll" of the Missouri Conference, after 39 years' active work in the itinerant service.

The son of Alfred and Mary Stephens Nollner, he was born Jan. 23, 1855, near Pineville, Ark. At 9 years of age the family moved to Crawford County, Mo., and here in this Methodist home of prayer he grew up under the training of parents who had a conscious, joyous experience of God's love. When 16 years old his conversion, "a sunburst of irrepressible joy," was under the preaching of a man full of the Holy Ghost. These early experiences stamped the ideals which directed and inspired all his life and ministry.

He had unbroken peace until the call to the Christian ministry, five years after conversion, "when, after a year of struggle (he says) he made a complete surrender to God and entered into the Canaan of perfect love which gave him a victory and abiding peace and joy in the Holy Ghost." The tides of divine grace often came in and he shouted the praise of God, when alone, caught up in the raptures of another world, almost oblivious of this. He was peculiarly sensitive to the touch of the Spirit; and his emotion was of a high order. It was this temperament, responding so freely to the divine influence, which was an element of power to attract the 3,000 souls converted under his ministry. In every sermon I ever heard from him there were passages that lifted and inspired; in public prayer he was specially unctious. This spirit was manifest in his home life, where his children loved and honored him. Until weakness forbade, in his months of retirement he led the family devotions with increasing fervor. It was like the Savior whom he had served to give his servants triumph as he approached the City of God and to make the room in which he lingered a "holy place" to those who came in. He sent a message to his brethren of the Conference—a goodly number of whom were present to assist in the funeral service at the Broadway Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. W. Hayne.

Bro. Nollner was a man of convictions. Speaking them freely, he was sometimes misunderstood. His faith endured testing of some sore trials; but in them all he was victorious and sometimes given visions of divine leading and love "not lawful to be uttered," which said, "My grace is sufficient for you."

To his pastoral and revival work he added the building of several parsonages and churches, notably the present Shaw Avenue Church, St. Louis, which was under roof and the money, $30,000, nearly all raised under his pastorate. He served about half his ministry in the St. Louis Conference, which he first joined in 1877, the rest in the Missouri Conference, except

Bro. Nollner was a man of convictions. Speaking them freely, he was sometimes misunderstood. His faith endured testing of some sore trials; but in them all he was victorious and sometimes given visions of divine leading and love "not lawful to be uttered," which said, "My grace is sufficient for you."

To his pastoral and revival work he added the building of several parsonages and churches, notably the present Shaw Avenue Church, St. Louis, which was under roof and the money, $30,000, nearly all raised under his pastorate. He served about half his ministry in the St. Louis Conference, which he first joined in 1877, the rest in the Missouri Conference, except one year in Albuquerque, N. M., and one year at Murphysboro, Ill., these changes being occasioned by health conditions, since he was never robust for many years of his ministry.

He served the following charges: In the St. Louis Conference—Eminence, Piedmont, West Plains, Siloam Springs, Williamsville, Washington and New Haven, Hematite, Clayton and Mt. Zion, Mt. Zion Caledonia, Clayton, Shaw Avenue, Bellefontaine; in the Missouri Conference—Fayette Circuit, Rocheport, New Franklin and Clark, Higbee, Ashland, Bowling Green, Edina, Fulton Circuit; Chillicothe Circuit, LaPlata, Center and Trinity, besides one year each in the Denver and Illinois Conferences, as before mentioned. Everywhere he left a good name.

He was twice married, first to Miss Annie Scott and later to Miss Sadina Arte Pehle, who survives him, with the children, Minnie, Theodosia, Annie, May and Ralph, William and Louis having gone on before. It was a great joy to the father that his youngest son, Ralph, should continue his own ministry, now in such an influential place with the young people of Southern Methodism, in the central office of the Epworth Leagues.

J. R. A. VAUGHAN.

REV. GROVER C. AKER

Rev. Grover C. Aker was born in North Carolina, July 17, 1885. Soon afterwards his parents moved to Virginia where his father died. When 12 years old his family moved to Blair, Nebraska. He early distinguished himself as a student. He represented his school in debate, helping them to win honors several times. He was the valedictorian of his class of 1906. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Blair in 1901. He was active in church work from the time of his conversion. He attended Tabor College, Iowa, and won the Inter-Class Oratorical honor. He served Modale Circuit, Des Moines Conference, one year. September, 1909, he went to live with his brother, the Rev. C. M. Aker, Columbia, Mo., and graduated in June, 1910, from the State University. While there he assisted his brother and organized his first "children's church." He went to Central Church in Kansas City in August, 1910, as junior preacher. September of the same year he joined the Missouri Conference on trial, was transferred to Southwest Missouri Conference, and continued as junior pastor of Central Church where he remained two years.

He was married March 13, 1912, to Miss Elizabeth Jean Swanson, of Council Bluffs, Iowa. In September, 1912, he transferred to the Missouri Conference and was appointed to Excelsior Springs station where he did the greatest work of his life. In 1916 he was sent to Lawson and soon won the hearts of the people as he had done at Excelsior Springs.

After two years the last six months of which he was confined most of the time to his bed he took a superannuate relation and returned to Excelsior Springs, hoping that the waters would cure him. He was taken with pneumonia October 31st and passed to his reward at noon, November 1st. The funeral was conducted from the Methodist church and he was buried with the Masonic Rites in the beautiful cemetery there. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. F. M. Burton, assisted by the Rev. B. D. Sipple, C. A. Bowles, and Rev. J. P. Jesse. He leaves behind a faithful wife and little daughter, Jean, his mother, two sisters and three brothers.

He was one of the finest, purest, noblest, young men I have ever known. I never knew one who had a stronger hold upon a community than he had upon Excelsior Springs. Saint and sinner alike loved and honored him. He met the last enemy without fear. His last words as he stretched his hands upward were "Heaven, Heaven, Heaven." Many of the strongest men from the church were brought in during his pastorate. As one who knew him said, "No purer, nobler, spirit ever lived among us. He was a preacher of unusual ability. He could catch and hold the attention of the crowd and bind them to himself in a remarkable manner. He was a true man. He had a big heart and a great soul. Could he have lived and maintained his health he would have made a great record in his church and in the services of his Lord."

REV. JAMES SAMUEL SMITH

Rev. James Samuel Smith, son of Judge J. D. and Ruth Smith, was born in Macon county, Mo., May 4, 1841, and died at the home of his son, J. B. Smith, in Wichita, Kan., after a brief illness, March 24, 1919. He was married to Miss Sue Cain, the daughter of a Methodist preacher, April 6, 1871, and to this happy union five children were born, four of whom with his devoted wife survive him.

Blessed with a religious parentage, he was converted at the age of 14, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Macon Circuit in the year 1860, Rev. W. E. Dockery pastor, and the following year was received into the Missouri Conference, at Glasgow, and appointed to the Fayette Circuit, with Rev. Andrew Monroe as the senior preacher. On account of the interruptions incident to the Civil War he did not receive orders until 1866, when he was ordained both deacon and elder by Bishop Doggett at Richmond, Mo.

From these brief annals it will be seen our sainted brother gave to the altars of the church a ministry of fifty-eight years. A varied service, and could it be recalled, no doubt of thrilling interest. He traveled circuits, was Presiding Elder of two districts, filled a number of important stations, gave several years to educational work, being president of three colleges. Was admitted to the bar, but never appeared in court as a lawyer. A reader of the best books and current literature his knowledge was encyclopaedic. But best of all he was a profound student of the Holy Scriptures, had a firm grip upon the great truths and doctrines of revelation, and delighted in unfolding them to others. As a preacher he entertained, edified and often rose to heights of impassioned eloquence. The people heard him gladly.

As a man he was modest, retiring, esteeming others better than himself. In his home he was the minister of a gracious hospitality, and was loved and revered by his children. Kind, gentle and affable of soul, his friends were legion. He learned the art of growing old gracefully, and his hoary head became a crown of glory, for it was found in the way of righteousness.

After retiring from the more active duties of the ministry he and Sister Smith made their home with their eldest daughter, Miss Mable Smith, in Marshall, Mo. It was in the Methodist Church in this fair city the last rites were said by the pastor and Presiding Elder and all that was mortal of James Samuel Smith was laid to rest in the city cemetery.

"Oh, happy man; there is no man like thee,
Worn out in service of humanity,
And dead at last, mid universal tears,
Thy name a fragrance in the speaker's breath,
And thy divine example life in death."

R. H. COOPER.

REV. JOHN S. FRAZIER

Rev. John Summerfield Frazier was born in Davidson county, Tennessee, May 24, 1838, and died in Palmyra, Mo., April 16, 1919, lacking only a little over one month of being eighty-one years old.

Brother Frazier was married to Miss Ella DeLaney, June 22, 1864. To this union five children were born, two sons and three daughters. Of these only two are living: Dr. L. C. Frazier of Palmyra and Mrs. George F. Hall of Pocatella, Idaho. There are also two grand children living.

While yet a mere youth, Brother Frazier was happily converted and united with the Methodist church at old McKendree Chapel in Southwest Missouri, the first Methodist church erected in the state.

In the fall of 1864, Brother Frazier was received on trial in the St. Louis Conference. At this Conference he was ordained a local deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh. In 1868, he was ordained elder by Bishop Marvin. In that Conference he served some of the leading appointments and was presiding elder of the Charleston District for three years, after which he transferred to the Missouri Conference, where he was a most efficient and successful pastor until about twenty years ago when, his health failing, he took the superannuated relation. But he was never idle, and as long as his strength would permit he was a faithful worker in the Master's service. Here in Palmyra, where he had once been pastor, and where he had lived since his superannuation, he was held in the highest esteem. He was a humble, sweet-spirited Christian man. For years he had been a great sufferer, but never complained. He died peacefully and triumphantly.

"Servant of God, well done!

Rest from thy loved employ;

The battle fought, the victory won,

Enter thy Master's joy."

JAMES M. BOON

REV. JOHN A. MUMPOWER

REV. JOHN A. MUMPOWER

The Reverend John Abraham Mumpower, son of David and Amanda Mumpower, was born near Haynesville (now Holt), Clay county, Missouri, January 8, 1842, and died in Palmyra, May 14, 1919, age 77 years, 4 months and 6 days.

Brother Mumpower was married to Miss Lucy West Carr, April 27, 1871. To this union two children were born: Alpha Givens, who died in infancy, and Beta Eloise, now Mrs. John M. Sosey of Palmyra, with whom Brother Mumpower had lived since the death of his wife in 1914, and who, with her husband delighted to minister unto him during his last long illness.

Brother Mumpower was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South under the ministry of Rev. Wesley G. Miller, D.D., of Chillicothe, Mo., in February, 1857. He was licensed to preach by the Chillicothe Quarterly Conference, April 19, 1862; was recommended for admission on trial into the Missouri Conference by the Spring Hill Quarterly Conference in 1864 and in September of that year, at Mexico, Mo., he was admitted on trial. At Macon City, September 8, 1867, he was ordained deacon by Bishop E. M. Marvin; and at Chillicothe, Mo., September 19, 1869, he was ordained elder by Bishop George F. Pierce. For fifty-three years he was on the effective list, serving the following appointments: Maysville, 1864; Albany 1865; Yellow Creek, (Bucklin) 1866; Savannah, 1867-69; Weston, 1870; presiding elder of Gallatin District, 1871-72; Carrollton, 1873; Gallatin, 1874-77; from February to September of 1877 as presiding elder of Gallatin District; to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. W. M. Wood; Macon, 1878-81; presiding elder of Fayette District, 1882-85; presiding elder of Mexico District, 1886-89; Mexico, 1890-91; Palmyra, 1892-93; Gallatin, 1894-95; Plattsburg, 1896-97; presiding elder of Macon District, 1898-1901; presiding elder of St. Joseph District, 1902-05; presiding elder of St. Charles District, 1906; Troy, 1907-08; Lawson, 1909-12; and Shelbyville, 1913-16. In the fall of 1916, he took the superannuated relation. At Chillicothe, Mo., 1915, he preached his semi-centennial sermon, which was full of power and unction as well as of reminiscences. With this record before us and knowing as we do how faithfully and successfully Brother Mumpower performed all the duties of the Christian ministry, it is no assumption to say of him as the inspired writer said of King David, "For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his Fathers."

From the day of his conversion to the hour of his death, his chief aim in life was to please God and do good unto his fellowmen. He had faith in God and confidence in his fellowmen. He had the happy art of finding some good in all men, and it was to that he appealed in doing the work of the Christian ministry. He was an instructive, helpful Gospel preacher, a safe counselor, a true friend, a devoted husband, a kind loving father and a consistent Christian. There was a personal charm that drew and attached men unto him. As one has said of another servant of God, so would I say of Brother John A. Mumpower, "He was remarkable for the purity of his character. His sentiments were transparently chaste and elevated. His conversation was perfectly free from vulgarity and frivolity. His conduct was adorned by the moralities of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, and his reputation has passed posterity without a stain."

The pains of death are passed, labor and sorrow cease;

And life's long warfare closed at last,

His soul is found in peace.

Soldier of Christ! well done;

Praise be thy new employ;

And while eternal ages run,

Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

JAMES M. BOON

HENRY POPE BOND, D.D.

Saturday morning, May 31, 1919, at 2 o'clock, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robt. Lander, 2923 Silver street, El Paso, Tex., there passed suddenly from the world of flesh into the Spirit realm one of God's noblemen in the person of Henry Pope Bond. He had just returned, late in the evening, from an Eastern Star Lodge in the city of El Paso, of which he was the worthy patron. He went to his room without disturbing his daughter and her husband, who had retired for the night. About 1:30 a. m. he came to the door of the room where his daughter was sleeping and awakened her, stating that he was very sick. He seemed to be suffering intensely from an attack of acute indigestion. The family physician was at once summoned, but just before he arrived Brother Bond smiled and said to his daughter, "It's all right," and was gone. Thus passed one of the most loyal sons of Methodism, one of the most devoted husbands the most fearless and conscientious ministers of the Word that it was ever our privilege to know. The record of his 76 years of earthly pilgrimage, and 52 years as an itinerant Methodist preacher, is one to which his relatives and friends can point with just and grateful pride.

Brother Bond, for so both saint and sinner, Jew and Gentile, Catholic and Protestant loved to call him, came of a line of noble ancestors who had in them the fire and blood of sturdy and refined pioneers. His father was the Rev. Richard Bond, M.D., who emigrated from Baltimore, Md., to Missouri in 1841, and in that year was made Presiding Elder of the St. Charles District, and later was stationed at old Danville, Montgomery county, Missouri in 1841, and in that year was made Presiding Elder of the St. Charles District, and later was stationed at old Danville, Montgomery county, Mo., where Brother Bond was born on May 13, 1843. His early life was exemplary as a son and brother in the home, and as a student in the schools where he received a finished education.

In 1867 Brother Bond joined the Missouri Conferenie, and was a faithful and loyal member of that Conference until his superannuation twelve years ago, when he came to El Paso to make his home with his daughter with whom he was living at the time of his death.

Brother Bond was twice married. The first time to Miss Mary Ellen Marmaduke in 1871, who died in 1880, leaving two little daughters, Mamie and Edith. In 1883 he was married to Miss Ada Marvin, daughter of Bishop E. M. Marvin, who died in 1905.

During the 40 years of his ministerial life in Missouri he served some of the most important charges, namely, Fayette, Moberly, Rocheport, New Franklin, Salisbury, St. Charles, etc. He was four years superintendent of the American Bible Society with headquarters at St. Louis. He was at one time grand chaplain of Masonic Grand Lodge of Missouri, and deputy grand lecturer of the same for some time. He was a very bright and enthusiastic Mason, having joined in 1866. He was a Scottish Rite, Knights Templar and a member of the O. E. S.

Although Brother Bond had taken a superannuated relation with the Missouri Conference, which relation he sustained at the time of his death, yet the twelve years of his superannuation were perhaps the most active and productive of good of his whole life. The work which he did in and around El Paso, in organizing churches and in building up the work of the Kingdom in general, was marvelous. He organized and established the following charges during these twelve years of which we speak: La Mesa, Berina, Cannutilla, Chamberino, Anthony, Ysleta, Clint, East El Paso. He was pastor of the La Mesa charge at the time of his death. He worked very enthusiastically in the Centenary drive, and his charge was the first in the New Mexico Conference to go over the top. He paid his personal subscription for the five years in full, remarking as he did so, that he didn't know what might happen to him in the next five years.

His funeral was held from the Trinity Methodist Church, El Paso, on Sunday afternoon, June 1st, and was one of the most largely attended funerals ever held in that city, which is evidence of the high esteem in which he was held as a friend and brother to all classes. He leaves to mourn his loss a devoted sister, Mrs. M. A. McIlhany, who now lives in Alhambra, Cal., and two devoted and loving daughters, Mrs. George Motz of Douglas, Ariz., and Mrs. Robert Lander of El Paso, Tex., with whom he had made his home for the last twelve years. His devotion and love for his two grandchildren, Marmaduke and Robert Lander, Jr., was most beautiful and tender. What he meant to the Lander home is touchingly expressed in a letter from his daughter, Mrs. Edith Lander, to the writer of this sketch just after her father's death, in which she said, "We feel it is impossible to go on living without his wonderful beaming countenance and presence in our home. He was such a benediction always."

How he impressed his comrades in the ministry is very forcibly and truthfully set for in a sketch of his life written by a comrade of his in the ministry, Dr. T. H. B. Anderson, who now abides with Brother Bond in our Father's house. In writing of him in the "Centennial Volume of Missouri Methodism," Dr. Anderson says: "He is cheerful without lightness; has passed under the rod; knows what trial, temptation and bereavement mean. His face is toward the sunrise. He possesses a sunny nature, and looking at him in the Conference room, one would judge him to have the deep tranquility of eternity in his heart."

Those of us who had the blessed advantage of walking and talking with him never cease to thank God for such a companion. The privileges of communing with such a spirit is almost as blessed as being such a soul.

"'Tis human fortune's happiest height to be

A spirit melodious, lucid, poised, and whole;

Second in order of felicity

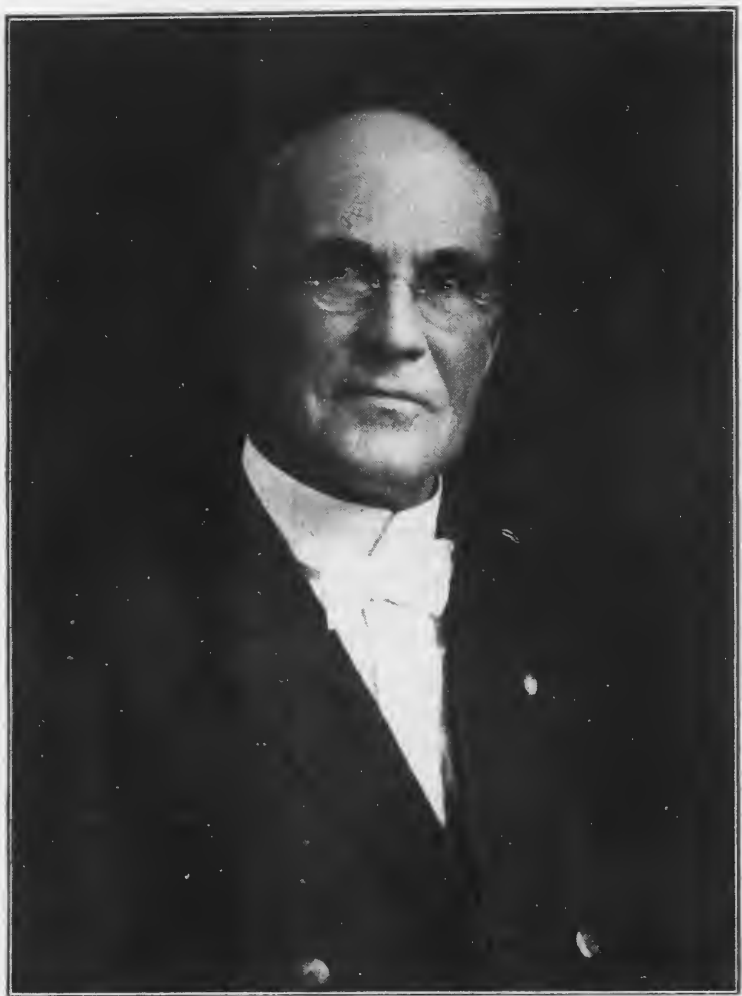

To walk with such a soul."

ELMER WALTER KOEWING

Elmer Walter Koewing was born near Warrenton, Mo., November 24, 1894. He was the youngest son of Reverend August Koewing, a superannuated member of the St. Louis German Methodist Conference. In early youth Elmer manifested inclinations for religious and spiritual things such as are seldom found at that age. After he finished the work of the public school, he completed a business course and entered the commercial world, and for several years held a lucrative and responsible position in one of the leading banks of St. Louis. It was during this time that he felt the call to the ministry. Reverend Wm. Isler, his pastor, observed that he possessed fine qualities and characteristics, and that he felt called to preach the Gospel. After his pastor spoke to him one day and prayed with him regarding his calling he decided to make the ministry his life's work for he knew God was calling him.

In September, 1914, he resigned his position and entered Central Wesleyan College at Warrenton, Mo., and graduated with honors in June, this year. During his last year at college, he supplied the Foristell Circuit in the St. Charles District of our Conference. As a pastor as well as a student he made a fine record. During his last year at college, he supplied the Foristell Circuit in the St. Charles District of our Conference. As a pastor as well as a student he made a fine record. He was a young man deeply spiritual, conscientious in his undertakings, faithful in his work and loved by all who knew him.

A few months before his death he decided to enter the Foreign Field. He had planned to attend Boston University this coming fall to prepare himself for that work.

The latter part of June he became ill while working on a farm for one of his members near St. Charles, Mo. A relative in St. Charles took him to his home and gave him the best of care and attention. His illness proved to be a severe attack of appendicitis. On July 7, he was taken to the hospital but died one-half hour after his arrival. A short funeral service was held at the home of his relative, conducted by Rev. C. P. Boenziger, pastor of the Fourth Street Methodist church of St. Charles. Interment took place in a cemetery at Ballwin, Mo., St. Louis county. Rev. V. O. White, presiding elder of the St. Charles District, conducted the funeral services, assisted by Rev. Wm. Isler, pastor of the Salem Methodist church of St. Louis; Dr. A. L. Koenecke, a presiding elder in the Methodist church of Ballwin, Mo.

He leaves to mourn his untimely death his loving parents, four brothers, four sisters and a host of friends.

ELMER FLETCHER COOLEY

Elmer Fletcher Cooley, son of Daniel W. and Nancy Cooley, was born in Linn county, Mo., May 20, 1866. In this county he grew to manhood. Brother Cooley was twice married. His first wife whose maiden name was Bailey passed into the "House not made with hands" some five years ago. To this union were born three children. The oldest daughter passed away two years before the death of her father. February 24, 1915, he was united in marriage to Miss Bessie Shackleford of Chariton county. To this union was born one child. Brother Cooley was converted in 1902 and united with the United Brethren Church. He was soon thereafter licensed to preach and faithfully served several pastorates in this communion. In 1907 he was received as a local preacher into the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, by the Gallatin District Conference. In the relation of a supply he served Jamesport Ct. two years, Palmyra Ct. one year, Chillicothe Ct. two years, Triplett Ct. two years, Craig Ct. one year and was in the closing months of his third year on the Forest City Ct. when he was suddenly called from his labors to the rest of the redeemed.

He was a strong and earnest preacher and a faithful and devoted pastor. He was a lover of men. A man of high ideals and conceptions of the work of a Methodist preacher. Those who knew him best loved him most.

He leaves a devoted wife and baby girl and two married daughters, Mrs. John A. Mumpower, Chillicothe and Mrs. R. D. Strickler, Craig. He lives in our memories and deep affections.

SISTER SAMUEL ALEXANDER

The little church at Corvallis, Ore., mourns today! It grieves the loss of one of its saintliest mothers. Our mother and sister, Mrs. Isabel Alexander, has gone to her reward. Southern Methodism never had a more loyal or more consecrated member. Her quiet devotion to her friends, her family and her church has made her loss the sorrow of everyone who knew her. Her life was a "living sacrifice" to her Master and His Kingdom. All she had—her means, her strength, her time, her children—were His.

Sister Isabel Cox Alexander (nee Rooker) was the daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Rooker. She was born in Brookfield, Mo., July 31, 1841. She was married to Rev. Samuel Alexander Sept. 29, 1863, and assisted him in the ministry for ten happy years, when the husband was "called home" from Marion, Va., February, 1873.

In September, 1879, she moved to Fayette, Mo., to educate her children. Her daughter said of her, "No mother ever carried the burden of a small family with more fidelity than she. What her children are and have been is entirely due to her watchful care and loving solicitude."

While in Fayette she was continually assisting young ministers, distributing her husband's library among them according to their needs. There will be many such men to mourn her loss.

She was the mother of five children, two dying in infancy, and a third, Mrs. Orien Estes, that consecrated missionary to China, passing to her reward in the land she loved and gave her life to March 2, 1915.

The surviving children are O. M. Alexander of Anniston, Ala., and Mrs. J. H. Goldman of Wren, Ore.

Sister Alexander had spent the winter in Alabama with her only son and had returned to her home in Corvallis just two weeks before she was called to her eternal home. She was suffering from a leakage of the heart, which rapidly grew worse and proved the messenger summoning her to her crown. We are telling her good-by today, but tomorrow we shall meet her again.

W. M. LAW, her pastor.

SISTER WILLIAM LESLIE MYERS

Lillie May Shreve Myers, wife of Rev. W. L. Myers and daughter of Z. B. and Nancy J. Shreve, was born in De Kalb county, Mo., Aug. 22, 1878. At the age of 6 she with her parents moved to near Riley, Kan., where they remained until she was 12, at which time they came to Turney, Mo., where she resided until her marriage to W. L. Myers, July 31, 1901.

She was the mother of five children, two of whom died in infancy.

She passed from this life Saturday, Nov. 2, 1918, after being ill only a few days, leaving to miss her companionship and mourn her decease her husband, three sons—Charles Leslie, aged 14; Ivin Paul, 11 years old, and Ray Elbert, nearly 6 years of age—with her father, one brother and one sister.

She was happily converted and joined the Methodist church in Turney, Mo., in early childhood, and she remained an earnest Christian worker until her departure.

She was the spiritual counsellor and constant helper of her husband in the delicate and difficult task of his ministry; a true wife, sharing in all his anxieties and cares and rejoicing in his successes; willing always to deny self and to sacrifice her personal comfort and pleasures in order that he might more effectively do his "Master's" work.

She is best described, however, as "Mother," for in this relation she never wearied of caring for her dear boys and was ready to give and do all if only they could be kept for God's service and grow to a noble and successful manhood.

She was much loved by the people of our church in Cowgill, among whom the last three years of her life were spent, and they join with her husband and sons in their sorrow.

Her pilgrimage is ended, her tasks well done and she has found rest in and with her Savior.

She knew that the call had come and willingly answered "Ready," for she knew "Him in whom she had believed."

Her loved ones find comfort in the faith that she is not dead, but "resting, safe in the arms of Jesus," and waiting for their final homecoming.

Followed by many of the good people of Cowgill church and community, she was taken to Turney, where, in the presence of a multitude of friends, funeral services were conducted by the writer and her body was laid to rest until "His coming."

W. J. PARVIN.

SISTER WILLIS CARLISLE

Isabel Caroline Phillips was born in Lyndenville, N. Y., Feb. 25, 1867, and moved to Gossett, Ill., with her parents when quite young. Here she grew to womanhood and married Willis Carlisle, a young school teacher at that time. Later he became a minister of the gospel and died while serving as pastor of the church at Savannah, Mo., Jan. 2, 1913.

Mrs. Carlisle was a woman of unusual ability and character. Her real worth could only be appreciated by those who, through close contact, came to know the beauty and fullness of her life. Her interests were many. She had the keenest appreciation of the best in literature, art, and music. In the midst of her manifold duties as wife and mother, she found time for the reading of many good books and magazines, which to her were a real necessity. Her gentleness of manner and speech and her quiet thoughtfulness of others endeared her to all. She numbered among her friends the best and most cultured people in every community in which she lived. Her devotion to duty and the patient persistence with which she pursued every task until she realized its accomplishment were characteristic of her whole life. Especially was this true during the period of the recent war. In addition to looking after the needs of her family, which included the care of an invalid mother, she apportioned herself a certain number of hospital garments for wounded soldiers, to be made every week during the entire period of the war, and certain afternoons given regularly and without fail to the making of surgical dressings or other Red Cross work. She was also campaign director in the same district for the first, second, third and fourth Liberty Loan Drives. And through it all there was the constant and tireless knitting on sweater, sock, muffler or helmet to make some soldier-lad more comfortable as he fought for the great cause in which she so thoroughly believed. Truly hers was a busy life, and her going has left many vacancies in home, church and community.

Easter Sunday morning, April 20, 1919, at her home in Syracuse, N. Y., she quietly relinquished the unfinished task and her gentle spirit winged its flight to the Glory-land. The sacred influence of her sweet Christian life will rest upon her children like a holy benediction and her wise council and admonitions will be a priceless heritage.
